La Honda Road Preferred to Alpine Artery

Supervisors, Council Back Petition for Substitution

Petitions were being circulated in Redwood City and vicinity Tuesday to secure substitution of the Woodside-La Honda road for the Alpine road as a project worthy of federal funds under the national recovery act.

The Alpine road, which runs near the Governor Rolph ranch on the Skyline boulevard and was the center of a political dispute some months ago when it was taken into the secondary system, is declared to be less important as a traffic carrier.

The city council and the board of supervisors are supporting the change.

Hugh Pomeroy, advisor to the planning commission, advised the board that there will be fewer dollars from the public works bill for secondary roads than was at first estimated. Only 25 per cent of the funds to be allotted can go to secondary roads, he said, estimating this figure at $4,000,000.

Surveys Are Ordered

The supervisors tomorrow will adopt a resolution urging consideration of three San Mateo county roads: Ocean Shore, San Mateo-Half Moon Bay and La Honda-Woodside.

Because of the prospect of new work on the La Honda road, County Surveyor James S. James was instructed by the supervisors yesterday to prepare surveys and secure additional rights of way from the end of Contract No. 1 to Woodruff Creek.

The petition before the board of supervisors and before the city council in support of the Woodside road and addressed to the state highway commission reads:

Heavy Traffic Carrier

"We would respectfully call your attention to the fact that this road is one of the heaviest traffic carriers in the San Mateo county highway system, carrying a traffic volume, for portions of its length, which is equivalent to that of the Skyline boulevard and far exceeding that of the Coast road and the Alpine road.

"We feel that the only reason that it was not included in the state highway system among the recent additions is the fact that it so closely parallels the Alpine road, which was recommended for inclusion because of its future importance.

"The La Honda road is of outstanding present importance and it is urgent that improvements on the Alpine road will not be needed until a considerable time in the future.

Fulfills Requirements

"The La Honda road entirely fulfills the requirements of the regulations under the national industrial recovery act, in that it serves as an inter-connection among important highways and leads to shipping terminals, both rail and water.

"Any appropriation made for construction on this highway will co-ordinate with work which has already been done by the County of San Mateo, but which cannot be continued at this time because of economic conditions. Meantime there is an acute unemployment problem which must be met."

Mayor William J. Dusel and members of the city council signed the petition last night, and today Councilman Robert Jones was securing additional signatures in the South Redwood area.

County Salary Increase Seen Under Charter

New posts created by the San Mateo county charter today threatened to boost county salary expenses approximately $39,000.

The increase was revealed today when County Manager Walter T. Kellogg presented his salary ordinance to the supervisors for perusal. Kellogg provided for salary reductions of $10 to $25 in order to keep the costs down.

If the new increase holds, the sum will represent about eight cents on the tax rate, County Auditor Edward M. Stack reports.

The new departments are those of county manager, with $9,540 in new salaries; county building inspector, $6240; director of public health, $4800; engineer, $1300; superintendent of social welfare, $2400, and others.

Salaries a year ago totaled approximately $355,000. Next year they may be $394,000.

Mary O'Keefe Is Bride of Mr. Buchanan

On last Sunday evening in the home of James O'Keefe, a very pretty wedding took place when Mary Ethel O'Keefe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas O'Keefe, and Albert Russell Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Buchanan, were married in the presence of a large number of relatives and close friends.

The interior of the O'Keefe home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of Boston ferns and summer blooms. The improvised altar in the living room, where the ceremony was held, was laden with white gladiolas and regal lilies. The wedding party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride, attired in pink chiffon, carried a shower bouquet of bouvardia, gardenias and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Marcella O'Keefe, who wore blue chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Mr. Philip McLean acted as best man for Mr. Buchanan.

After the ceremony the entire wedding party adjourned to the Cardinal Hotel in Palo Alto where all enjoyed the wedding supper. During the repast many brief talks of felicitation were made to which the groom fittingly replied. During the evening an orchestra discoursed appropriate music.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan sailed on the S. S. General Pershing from Portland on Wednesday morning for a three months' trip around the world. They will visit London, Paris, Shanghai and many other of the great cities of the world which are easily reached from the coast line. They will go by way of China, Japan, the Philippines, Egypt, Italy and go overland to Genoa to Paris. After reaching New York they will return by way of the Panama Canal reaching San Francisco about October 20.

Mrs. Buchanan is the sister of Miss Marcella O'Keefe and Mr. James O'Keefe Jr., and the niece of Mr. D. E. O'Keefe.

CO. VALUE $50,030,695; DECREASE TOTAL $740,898

San Mateo county land and improvement values as used for taxation purposes took a drop of $740,898 during the year, County Assessor Daniel P. Flynn reported today. The drop in values will mean a higher tax rate.

The value of the 13 peninsula cities for taxation purposes was fixed at $33,053,815, and the five townships added $16,976,880, Flynn's chart shows.

These figures together, $50,030,695, will form the basis for determining the 1933-34 tax rate.

In addition to land and improvements, other values possessed by the county but not subject to the same tax levies include $3,837,065 in utilities and $6,425,850 in stocks and bonds.

The biggest drop in value, amounting to one-half of the figure, occurred in Burlingame, Flynn reports. Land and improvements there were worth $350,000 less than a year ago.

Redwood City fared exceptionally well in maintaining values, showing a decrease of only $40,753.

San Mateo had twice that figure at $85,000.

The chart contains one new city, Bayshore, which is taxable on a value of $143,005.

Flynn announced that the county revaluation plan evolved three years ago has not yet been completed and is only partially applied this year. The uncertainty of the Riley plan's probable effects and the imposition of an ad valorem tax by the legislature were part of the reasons the plan will not be fully used, Flynn said.

The value of cities and townships follow:

Bayshore City	$143,005
Daly City	1,880,350
Lawndale	357,790
So. San Fran.	2,545,150
San Bruno	1,249,725

Redwood City	3,478,795
Atherton	2,561,200
Menlo Park	883,670
Total of cities	$33,053,815
1st Township	$4,140,160
2nd Township	2,195,650
3rd Township	6,750,780

CITY FACES TAX BOOST IN RILEY PLAN PASSAGE

Redwood City today faces a 5-cent increase in the tax rate for 1933-34 because of the passage Tuesday of the Riley-Stewart tax plan.

The increase, it was disclosed at the city council Monday, will be caused by the stringent provision of the Riley plan limiting the increases of budgets to five per cent of the previous year.

As Redwood City operated on a "skin tight" budget last year and no major developments or capital outlays were met, City Manager Ernest Rolison and Councilman Paul McCarthy deem it necessary to step up this year's budget beyond what was at first contemplated.

The council had entertained hopes of operating on last year's rate of $1.10 per $100, which was a drop of 20 cents from 1931-32. Tentatively, at least, the rate now faced by the city is $1.15.

Need Not Be Spent

It was pointed out by Councilman McCarthy that the extra sum raised, which will be about $6861, need not be spent. It, however, will be a safeguard against unforeseen emergencies.

The budget as tentatively drafted allows for no leeway; no substantial betterments and no unemployment relief. City Manager Rolison told the council that it would be admittedly "a dangerous budget."

Under the tentative budget, the council would have $174,444.60 to spend in 1933-34 after deducting for an estimated 15 per cent delinquency.

Plan Rejected Locally

Bonds and interest would claim $37,123.60 of this sum, and the library, $11,573.50. This would leave $125,747.50 for general government, police, fire, park, street, building, electrical, and all other departments of city government.

Both Redwood City and San Mateo county rejected the Riley plan, but it carried the state.

Don Bourquin Accidentally Killed by Gun

Donald Ernest Bourquin, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bourquin and a junior student at Sequoia Union High School, was accidently shot and fatally injured while returning from a hunting trip in the vicinity of the Dupret mine near Sterling City, Butte county, last Friday.

Word of the youth's death was received here Friday by his parents in a telephone message from Joseph Dupret of this city, whose family young Bourquin had accompanied to the mine June 8, shortly after the close of the spring semester of high school.

The boy had had considerable experience in the use of firearms and was given permission to take the high-powered rifle of his father on the vacation trip. Donald owned a .410 gauge shotgun which he had left at the mine.

Was Athlete

Young Bourquin in recent months had shown complete recovery from a series of operations on his feet to strengthen the arches, and he showed athletic promise last fall as a regular tackle on the Sequoia 130-pound football team.

He was also interested in art and had made a large collection of his own drawings and decorated chinaware.

Donald was born in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, February 7, 1917, and came to Redwood City with his parents 11 years ago. He leaves his parents and a brother, Basil, 13, also a Sequoia student, and a sister, Shirley, 3. Other relatives reside in this city. The father is a builder and contractor here and a prominent member of the Eagle lodge.

Funeral Monday

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home. The obsequies were conducted by the Rev. Norman W. Pendleton of the First Congregational Church. High school classmates were pallbearers.

Chris Stilleson To Meet Brother After 40 Years

Chris Stilleson and son, Clarence, left last Tuesday for San Pedro, where Mr. Stilleson will meet his brother, Andrew Stilleson, captain of a large steamer. It is 40 years since the Stilleson brothers have seen each other, the last meeting being in Norway shortly before Chris Stilleson sailed for this country.

In resigning as postmaster of Laramie, Wyo., Bill Nye wrote a letter to President Arthur; the letter was so amusing that it brought him fame as a humorist.

Ward's Lease Recorded at Court House

David J. Davis Will Put Up Firm's New Store

Calling for a rental of $600 per month or $7200 per year, the lease between Montgomery Ward & Company and David J. Davis, Hillsborough capitalist, for the new Ward store on Broadway between Hamilton and Winslow streets, was filed Monday with County Recorder T. C. Rice.

Meanwhile workmen were speeding the destruction of the old Foley garage building so that construction of the new store may be started shortly.

The $7200 annual lease agreement runs for 10 years from November 1, 1933, to October 31, 1943.

It is based upon the cost of the new building being $55,000.

If the cost of the new structure exceeds that sum, then $105 per year is to be added to the rent for each $1000 additional invested.

The cost of the building under this agreement is not to exceed $75,000.

For the years 1943-48, the 10th to 15th years, Ward's will pay "a fair rental value" to be reached by agreement or arbitration. It will not be less than the annual rent of $7200 for the first 10 years, nor more than $2400 per year above that figure.

Rental for the 15th to 20th years will be based on a similar agreement.

It is also provided that at the end of 20 years Ward's can secure an extension of the lease for 10 more years.

If Davis should decide to sell the building at any time during the 30-year period he is to give Ward's the first chance to buy.

Ward's must deliver the plans for the new structure as soon as the lease is filed. They must fit into the $55,000 to $75,000 cost, or be revised. The plans are being drafted at the firm's expense in Chicago. Davis will stand the cost of the building.

Davis and R. G. Bear, vice-president of the Ward concern, arranged the lease agreement, which was prepared by Attorney L. G. Hallihan of the law department of Ward's.

Relief Wage Cut Protest Lodged With Supervisors

Protest against paying relief project workers only $3 a day while working alongside regular county workmen getting $4.50 per day was lodged with the board of supervisors Monday by C. J. Pettigrew, Daly City.

Capt. Edward Macauley and Sam D. Merk, who head the committee handling relief work, declare the reason is that if the relief workers are paid as much as they can earn on the outside they will not take jobs in regular employment channels.

Witt Requests Full Payment Of His Claims

Colma Supervisor in "Bad Light," He Declares

Declaring that he has been "put in a bad light" by published reports that he has spent far in excess of what he had funds to meet, Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, today demanded that the board of supervisors pay up the outstanding claims.

Witt said that he had "more than ample funds" in his district budget to meet the expenses he had incurred. His plight, he said, of having bills left over which could not be paid at this time was caused by a pooling of all supervisorial funds by County Auditor Edward M. Stack.

Stack explained the need of pooling the funds to close the fiscal year with as many bills paid as possible.

Witt pointed out that he had surrendered $2185 from his district budget and $500 which the supervisors had promised to allow his district for truck hire. This $2600, he said, would have paid up all claims incurred by him.

Stack reported the amount of claims left over after all funds had been exhausted was $3600. It happened that most of the unpaid claims were Witt's.

Witt asked the board how this happened, saying he had put in his claims at the same time the others came in.

While no explanation was offered, Supervisors John Poole and Dr. C. V. Thompson assured Witt that every claim will be met.

The Colma supervisor asked that they be met immediately either from the unbudgeted reserve or from the state gas funds.

This, however, was not done. The claims, Auditor Stack reports, will be met in July. Supervisor Poole said this was the usual custom practiced over a long period.

Fire Loss in Past 12 Mos. Shows Drop

The fire loss in Redwood City during the year ended Friday was much less than that of the previous year, according to Chief Mark Ryan's report to the council.

In the twelve months just passed, loss was placed at $6117, or 68 cents per capita. The year prior to that, the loss was $18,921, or $2.10 per capita.

There were 115 alarms during the last 12 months, as against 121 the previous period. There were 62 grass, 17 building, three garages, 10 auto, two chimney, six rubbish and nine miscellaneous fires, and six false alarms.

June saw 29 alarms, of which 27 were for grass fires, one for a building and one for burning rubbish. The loss was $850.

There were 104,000 motor buses operating in the United States during 1932.

Salaries at County Hospital Totai $81,815, Budget Shows

San Mateo county's largest single salary budget, acording to figures compiled today by County Manager Walter T. Kellogg, is that requireed for the operation of the Community Hospital.

The sum of $81,815 will be needed to meet the hospital's payroll in 1933-34, Kellogg announces.

It will be collected by more than 80 individuals.

Not included in the salary budget is the cost of operation, which, with salaries, amounted to $136,440.64 last year.

The salary range runs from $3,000 per annum for Dr. A. L. Offield, superintendent of the hospital, to $240-yearly pay of one orderly.

Besides Dr. Offield, there is an assistant superintendent who is paid $2400 per year. In addition thereto, the salary list includes:

One resident physician, $1200; one assistant resident physician, $1200; one visiting tubercular physician, $1200; one roentgenologist, $1200; one anaesthetist, $1875; one physiotherapist, $1080; one pharmacist-x-ray technician, $2250 and one laboratory technician, $675.

Then comes a historian, $1380; switchboard operator, $35 month; office clerk $110; switchboard operator, $55; one room-maid for nurses' home, $55; one linen-room maid, $75; two assistants to same, $50 each.

Three graduate nurses for communicable diseases each draw $85; four practical nurses get $70 each, one graduate nurse is paid $80, one orderly $70, and one orderly, $20.

In addition, the sum of $2191 may be expended to fill temporary vacancies caused by vacations.

Health Department Budget

Besides the care of patients once they require hospitalization, the county engages in an extensive service to protect health.

Under the new charter, a director of health and welfare is created, whose salary will be $4800 per year. The salary budget of the director totals $16,140.

The director will be provided with a clerk at $100 per month, and under his department the following will be grouped:

Meat Inspector, $200 (old salary, $225) per month.

Meat Inspector, $170 (old salary, $180).

Milk Inspector, $225 (old salary, $250).

Two assistants, $125 each.

More Trees to Face Cutting Down Here

Residents of the 1400 block on Jefferson avenue asked the city council Monday to declare a stand of eucalyptus trees to be a nuisance. The matter was referred to City Manager Ernest Rolison.

Property owners have already removed some of the trees but those the city is asked to condemn stand on unimproved property. It is charged that the trees are overgrown and unkept and shed a great amount of leaves which fall on neighboring property.

R. J. Feldbusch and 10 others signed the petition.

Bay Sewage Elimination Under Study

Plans looking to the future elimination of the practice of disposing of sewage in San Francisco bay were discussed tentatively in San Francisco today by County Manager Walter T. Kellogg and County Surveyor James S. James.

They met with Guy Kennedy, San Francisco consulting engineer.

First step in the proposal would call for a preliminary survey, the cost of which was estimated at $10,000. This, Kellogg said, would bar the study for the present.

Tentative plans would call for several central disposal plants along the peninsula.

In the project the co-operation of peninsula cities would be necessary to assure a wide enough scope to make the plan financially possible.

Kellogg also reported that San Francisco and Oakland and other bay counties would be required to join the plan as it would do no good for this county to stop the present sewage disposal methods if the others continued to dump into the bay, he said.

Dictograph's Use Denied by Judge Swart

Evidence For Use of Jury Not Obtained That Way

Superior Judge Franklin Swart Monday denied reports appearing in San Francisco morning newspapers that he had used a dictograph to secure part of the evidence contained in his instructions to the 1933 grand jury in which he charges the supervisors with attempting to obstruct the new charter.

"I have never resorted to the dictograph in securing any evidence," Judge Swart said.

The jurist kept his lips sealed as to who it was that carried the information from the purported secret meetings of the board to him on which the instructions were based.

Judge Swart has made some serious accusations in which he alleges that the board is attempting to appoint W. W. Hendricks as county engineer so that through him they can keep control of county road patronage.

The jurist has demanded that the grand jury summon the four controlling members of the board and question each of them as to whether anything was said of "patronage" and "patronage on the rock and gravel."

County Surveyor James Monday took over the duties of roadmaster of San Mateo county.

He is proceeding "slowly," however, pending the decision of Attorney General U. S. Webb as asked by the supervisors whether or not the board has the right to appoint someone else, he said.

James will not interfere with the work relief projects on which men have been allotted by the county committee for the next two weeks. After that period, however, projects must be revised to fit his schedule.

Road work must proceed under a reduced program as the supervisors are now overdrawn $3,667 on their road expeditures.

There is also an item of $3,168 for a wig-wag signal on the Millbrae crossing which must be paid from the road funds, making the actual overdraft $6,835, County Auditor Edward Stack reports.

Driver Held After Hydrant Is Snapped

SAN MATEO, July 3.—George McClintock, 33, salesman, of 315 Mt. Diablo avenue, was held by police today to face charges of driving a car while allegedly intoxicated.

McClintock's car is believed to have snapped off the hydrant at Palm and Hayward avenues. He was found some distance away with his car damaged.

One of the heaviest rainfalls ever recorded in the United States was at Taylor, Tex., on September 9-10, 1921, when 23 inches of rain were recorded for the two days.

Supervisors Give James Road Control

Plan to Ask Webb For Ruling Not Dropped

Relinquishment of road district management to County Surveyor James S. James was voted Monday by the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

It was agreed, at least, that James should take control of the roads under the charter's consolidation plan until Attorney General U. S. Webb rules on whether or not the board can appoint an outside engineer.

If Webb reverses District Attorney Edmund Scott, who reiterated yesterday that the freeholders intended the county engineer should be the roadmaster, then the board may take the opportunity to regain control. Scott mailed his request for an opinion from Webb Monday.

Vote Not Audible

The vote on turning over the roads to James went against the supervisors by default. Actually there apparently was but one "aye" vote, that of Dr. C. V. Thompson, Burlingame supervisor.

Dr. Thompson had moved that this be done. Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, seconded the motion. leagues and seconded the motion. When the vote was taken but one "aye" was distinctly heard. There were no dissenting votes, however, and the vote was taken as unanimous.

Witt and Thompson revealed that they had previously turned their roads over to James.

"Glad for Relief"

Dr Thompson declared himself 'glad to be relieved of road problems."

Supervisor Rosalie Brown, San Mateo, raised the question whether the general law of the state didn't require the board to manage roads along with its other duties.

Scott informed her that the organic law of the county was the charter and that it superseded provisions of the general law.

"The supervisors have no right to choose between the two," he said.

Eight Rescued From Stalled Boats on Bay

Four San Franciscans Saved Off Shore Of S. S. F.

Eight persons were rescued from disabled bay craft in two mishaps on San Francisco bay off San Mateo county Tuesday.

Four San Franciscans drifted three hours in a stalled outboard motorboat off South San Francisco before their plight was seen by a state traffic captain, who summoned rescuers.

They were John T. Clancy, 338 Holloway avenue; his daughter, Genevieve; Frank Tognotti, 1006 Capitol avenue, San Francisco, and Algo Brill, 26 Florida street, San Francisco.

Captain Paul Perussina of the state bureau here sighted them.

Four Sea Scouts were rescued near the San Mateo-Hayward bridge last night when a Coast Guard cutter was sent out to bring them to shore.

They had drifted with the bay tide for two hours.

William Halley, 18, of 136 North Willard street, San Jose; Albert Cedesco, 18, and Vincent Cedesco, 15, brothers, of 1315 Yosemite avenue, San Jose, and Alvin Withers, 17, Los Gatos, were the boys.

They were on a bay cruise when their power boat was swamped by a heavy wave. Highway Patrolman Edward Dyas saw them from the bridge and threw them a rope.

'Peggy,' Pet Police Dog, Succumbs Here

Redwood City's younger population Monday mourned the passing of Peggy, 12½-year-old police dog owned by J. T. Larkin, 124 Lincoln avenue.

Twice the victim of heart attacks, last Sunday and about a month ago, Peggy succumbed to a third attack at 10 o'clock this morning after her owner had worked for two hours to restore her to life, as he had on the previous occasions.

Peggy was beloved by all the children of the neighborhood and was described by them as "just a good old dog."

SURPLUS FRUIT WANTED FOR USE OF DESTITUTE

Following its first call for surplus fruit, made recently, the local chapter of the Red Cross today reported that enough had been contributed to date to make 100 glasses of jelly and 40 of jam.

All persons having fruit of any kind suitable for preserving, and which would otherwise be wasted, are urged by the chapter to telephone Mrs. William J. Dusel. She is chairman of the committee in charge and her number is 526.

The Red Cross is supervising the work, which is being done by four unemployed women registered under the county unemployment bond relief program. The women also do sewing when they are not engaged in canning the fruit.

The fruit is put up in the kitchen of the Sequoia Union High School cafeteria. Cooperation of the high school board has made the fruit canning project possible, for, without the school kitchen, there would be no other place available.

Sugar and paraffine have been purchased with relief money and jars, tops and other canning equipment have been donated. Contributions of any of these supplies will be welcomed, in addition to the fruit.

Distribution of the canned fruit will be made later by a local committee headed by Henry Witte.

cools beer properly

Beer that's been kept too cold is as bad as beer that's too warm. Temperatures below a certain point produce an actual chemical change in beer... make it flat, cloudy, unappetizing.

However, Ice... and only Ice... keeps beer at just the proper temperature. Cooled in a good Ice refrigerator, your beer will always be at its sparkling, zestful, delicious best.

If you haven't an Ice refrigerator at present, phone today and ask about the new Ice refrigerators... or ask your Ice man.

Malice Charged In Lawsuit for Huge Sum Here

Seeking $100,515, Armelio and Mario Rossi today sued Fred Lombardi of South San Francisco for asserted malicious prosecution on a charge of battery. The two complaints, each asking $50,257.50, were filed today with County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman.

Lombardi is accused of going before Justice of the Peace Edward Farrell, South San Francisco, following a dispute last July 4, and swearing to a charge of battery. The case went to trial on September 21, 1932, but resulted in a mistrial. No further prosecution was made, and on January 11 Judge Farrell dismissed the complaint.

The firm of Oliva & Coleman filed the actions.

More marriages were performed in Nebraska in 1932 than in 1931.

Junior College Budget Higher; Tax Abolished

SAN MATEO, July 3.—San Mateo Junior college will operate next year on a budget $15,000 higher than the present year, and the Burlingame and San Mateo high schools on a budget $14,000 less, it was decided by the high school and junior college board in a final budget session at the office of Superintendent Homer Martin.

The high school budget was set at $300,515, and the junior college budget at $207,125.

A statement from Martin said that the tax rate for the junior college was expected to be cut from the current rate of sixteen cents per $100 of assessed valuation to nothing, and the high school rate from sixty-five to sixty cents.

Trustees explained that elimination of the junior college tax will be effected through use of the cumulative surplus acquired from the $65 annual fee paid by students outside the district. Unless the state legislature decreases provision for junior colleges, part of the surplus fund will be diverted to this use, they said.

Girl Scouts Here Observe 'Fourth' On Local Campus

Sixty Girls Scouts celebrated the nation's birthday Tuesday at their day camp on the Sequoia high school campus.

The drama section of the camp presented a patriotic program as part of the holiday schedule.

Cooperation of merchants in the Sequoia district, including Redwood City, San Carlos, Menlo Park and other communities, in providing the main dish for the noon luncheons, is making possible the maintenance of the camp at a cost of only 10 cents per day for each girl, according to Miss Albertha Youker, director.

Many girls who would otherwise be denied the opportunities of directed recreation are able to participate because of the low cost.

Miss Sophie Clayburg has offered two "campships," each providing for the free enrollment of a worthy scout at the day camp for the entire period.

Mrs. R. E. Hackley, members of the Palo Alto chapter of the American Association of University Women, will come to Redwood City tomorrow to talk to the Girl Scouts on birds.

Planning Value To County Told To Local Group

How county planning helps to increase property values by directing development in proper proportion among business, industrial, residential and recreational areas was described in a talk before the Redwood City Yomecan Club Monday night at Hotel Sequoia by Ronald L. Campbell, technician for the San Mateo County Planning Commission.

The planning commission, according to Campbell, is instrumental in securing for the county grants of rights of way and other sites free of charge that would be extremely costly if acquired after development had taken place. Property owners are likewise benefitted because properly planned sites are worth more than those arranged in helter-skelter fashion, and set-back lines for roads and highways, if established early, eliminate the necessity of moving back buildings when thoroughfares are widened, the speaker said.

Campbell showed charts of the land use plan for the San Mateo county bayside water front, providing for industrial development in the vicinity of Redwood City and South San Francisco and for recreational areas at Burlingame and San Mateo.

He also showed survey charts of coastside beaches which are to be acquired with comparatively small cost to the county because of the foresight of the planning commission.

Elbert Thomas was chairman of the meeting.

Gergen Sinks In Quagmire On Bayshore

A. W. Gergen, district manager for Montgomery Ward and Company and former manager of the local Ward store, was recovering Monday from a harrowing experience that nearly cost his life.

While driving between Belmont and San Mateo on the Bayshore highway, the brakes on the Gergen car became hot and started to burn.

In order to cool them off, Mr. Gergen stopped the car and stepped to the edge of the highway to secure an old can to scoop up some water from the bay.

In doing so, he was instantly sucked into the quagmire at the side of the highway up to his waist.

Hearing his cries for help, Bradford Kelly, local manager of the Johns-Manville Products Company, who was following Gergen, rushed to his aid and finally dragged him to safety.

Public Ownership Profit Cuts Taxes In 2 Valley Cities

SACRAMENTO, July 6.—Municipal ownership of utilities has brought about a sharp reduction of taxes to two Northern California cities.

City clerks of Woodland and Roseville reported today that the municipally owned utilities operated at healthy profits during the past year.

Roseville's electric light system showed a net profit of $35,988.71 for the fiscal year ending June 30. The surplus, transferred to the general fund brought about one of the lowest tax rates in the state this year, 75 cents on the $100 assessed valuation.

Woodland's water system showed a profit of $13,033.31, enabling the city to end the year with a surplus of $4,874.88 despite greatly reduced budget allowance. The tax rate during the past year was trimmed 39 cents, possible, to a large extent, because of the city owned water system which permits a rate of $1.50 a month for domestic consumers.

There are 174 different machine operations performed upon 154 machines and 36 hand operations in the making of an ordinary shoe. Altogether, there are 210 processes by a proportionate number of workers.

C. C. Young Tells Of Renovize Plan At Kiwanis Meet

C. C. Young, former governor of California and now head of the San Mateo County "Renovize" campaign, was the speaker at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club at Hotel Sequoia Wednesday. Roscoe Byrnes, secretary of the campaign and originator of the movement in San Mateo county, explained the plan in detail.

Young cited the fact that Philadelphia in three weeks pledged $20,000,000 in home repair and in three months 80 per cent of these pledges had been completed in actual work, meaning $17,000,000 in additional labor provided and unemployment relief to an astounding degree.

Byrnes stated that the building industry was the second largest business in the United States, led only by agriculture, and that when the building industry gets moving in a normal fashion, all other industry will accordingly increase.

More than 100 cities have adopted the "renovize" plan since its inception little over a year ago. San Francisco plans to join hands with San Mateo county in promoting the idea.

Actual work on the plan is slated to begin about August 1, although interested home owners have already forwarded several thousand dollars worth of pledges to headquarters at San Mateo.

A house to house canvass will be made and the goal is $1,000,000 worth of work.

Sam H. Winklebleck was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. Guests at the affair included W. H. Morrissey, George. McQueen, E. W. Patterson and K. B. Towne.

Power Companies May Seek Control Of Public Works

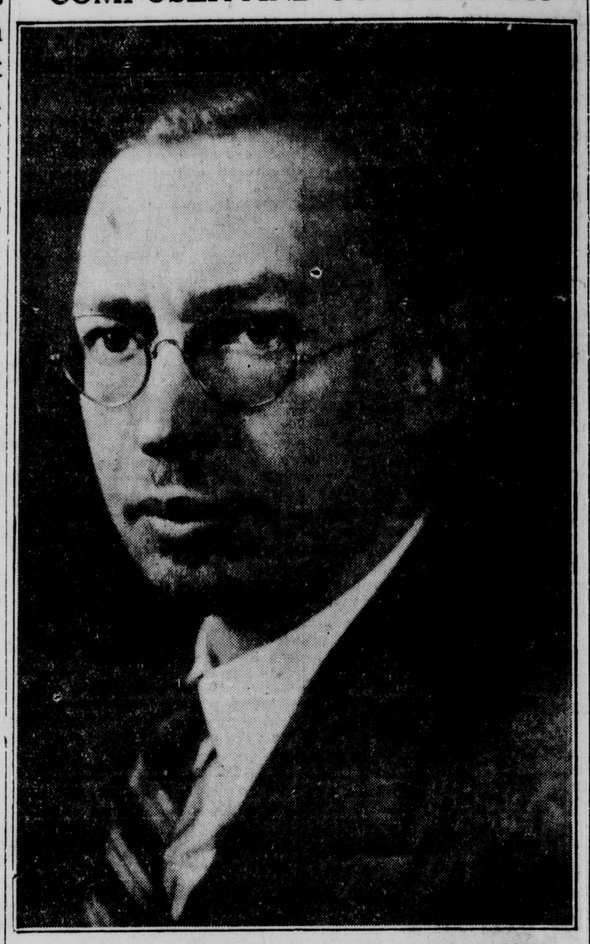
Support of the city council was added Monday night to the efforts of the California Municipal Utilities Association to urge Secretary of Commerce Harold Ickes to prevent private power companies from securing the state and regional directorships on the public works program.

C. R. Reid of Berkeley, representing the utilities association, warned the board of the danger of having the city projects rejected if power companies gain the directorships.

Councilman Paul McCarthy declared the matter one of grave concern to cities having hopes of acquiring utilities and urged that Mayor William J. Dusel dispatch a wire to Secretary Ickes.

The motion was seconded by Councilman Robert Jones and passed.

COMPOSER AND CONDUCTOR



Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, who will conduct the second of this season's open air concerts at Hillsborough next Sunday afternoon. He is a composer of note.

The second of this season's open air concerts in the Woodland Theatre at Hillsborough next Sunday afternoon will be conducted by one of the foremost of the younger American composers, Dr. Howard Hanson, who is director of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York.

From 1916 to 1921, Dr. Howard Hanson was a member of the faculty and the last two years, dean of the conservatory of the College of the Pacific when that institution was located in San Jose. From California he went to Rome for three years, having been awarded the Prix de Rome at the American Academy for one of his orchestral compositions. He was the first American to win this coveted prize.

Most recent of this composer's works to be heard is the music which has has written for an opera, "Merry Mount," to be produced at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York next January. Hanson was commissioned to write this opera last year and it was presented in concert form with the composer conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra during the annual music festival last May at the University of Michigan.

The program next Sunday will include Hanson's latest symphony, which he has titled "Romantic." It was first played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra last year and was included in several of the New York Philharmonic programs this spring with Toscanini conducting. The composer was present at one of these concerts and was given a tremendous ovation by the audience when introduced on the stage by Toscanini. Olin Downs, the music critic of the New York Times, has designated it as perhaps the first great American symphony.

The complete program follows:

Prelude to Act III—Lohengrin ..... Wagner

Symphony No. 2 "Romantic" ..... Hanson

INTERMISSION

Natchez on the Hill...John Powell
